THE CRITICS GIVE 'LOVE OR A KINGDOM' A ROYAL WELCOME

★★★ "An epoch of
"Love and John" of Poland ... cinema staged and able presented. He also has definite appeal ... especially in the role of the young king in White Duchowicz ... combined with English film, the picture will not be confined to those territories with the Polish tongue."
— DAILY NEWS.

"European country Polish history has furnished one of the finest spectacles of 1937 ... Love and John shows the handsome romantic actor seen to great, vivid advantage ... He stands and his total grace and style never fail."
— NEW YORK POST.

"Excellent film has done in the grand manner."
— HERALD-TRIBUNE.

"Highly decorative and entirely in a superb historical setting ... plenty of drama ... to be enjoyed not even the Thirty Six Century's and not remain cold."
— DAILY HERALD.

"Excellent acting ... handsome effectiveness ... leading roles are superbly portrayed ... handsomely presented and captivating enough."
— T. FOXBALL
and AMERICAN.

"Polish dramatic history looks forward with a MUTE-LING of its own ... an eye-thing spectacle ... elaborate setting of royal pomp and circumstance ... admirable film ... definite drama ... a capital action and a capturing sight."
— ORCHARD THEATRICAL.
